

RON LIVINGSTON VIRGINIE LEDOYEN with
CHRIS PENN and UDO KIER and introducing THUY NGUYEN
"Excellent!" "Riveting!"
Jeffrey Lyons, Reel Talk The New York Times

An award-winning, captivating film now available on DVD!

After receiving much national and international acclaim, including the U.S. State Department's prestigious Global Heroes Award, HOLLY is now available on DVD.

"Holly is more than just a dramatic movie. It is a life changing film experience... Holly is able to show the value of human life and innocence"

"...a film that every responsible, caring human being should see."

"the most unsettling must-see movie of the year. This film is a modern day Schindler's List"

As part of our fight against human trafficking,
The Salvation Army is proud to support

HOLLY

Fate...purpose...redemption

15% of the proceeds will benefit
The Salvation Army
purchase now @ www.salarmychicago.org/

Patrick (Ron Livingston), an American dealer of stolen artifacts in Cambodia, embarks on a frantic journey in attempt to help Holly (Thuy Nguyen), a 12-year-old Vietnamese girl who has been sold by her impoverished family and smuggled across the border to work as a prostitute. The film follows their strong connection and Holly's unrelenting efforts to escape her fate.